Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

Boston, Mass. May 18, 1883.

Sir:

Will you please inform me if, among the bags of 1 cent nickel pieces, forwarded to you the 14th inst, there was a bag of one cent bronze pieces. As I find a bag of $60.- one cent nickel pieces left, it is thought a bag of $75.- bronze, being misplaced was sent to you in its stead. If this is the case, and you will return the bronze coin, a bag of nickel, will be sent to replace it. Please report at your earliest convenience and oblige.

Respectfully

W. H. Richmond

Asst Treas U. S.
